PARK-AND-SHOP NEIGHBORHOODS

YOU CAN WALK IN L.A. Okay, so maybe you do drive everywhere in L.A. But eventually you park. And more and more, when you get out of the car, you find yourself in actual neighborhoods. They're areas that have cultivated clusters of smart stores and restaurants—places in L.A. where you want to shop and, believe it or not, walk.

BEVERLY BLVD.

- 1 KING'S ROAD CAFE Brunch, lunch, and potent coffee. 8361 Beverly Boulevard, 323-655-9044
- 2 LAMPA MOBLER Very slick, very modern lighting, fans, and furniture. 8317 Beverly Boulevard, 323-852-1542
- 3 SOMNIUM High-tech, stylish, "ergonomically correct" beds that look like they were designed by David Cronenberg—but in a way that won't scare her. 8311 Beverly Boulevard, 323-655-6700
- 4 RHOOOM A current take on Knoll-style modernism. 8257 Beverly Boulevard, 323-655-3000
- 5 ORANGE See write-up, page 200.
- 6 TWENTIETH See write-up, page 201.
- 7 SHELTER A sophisticated—and pricey—take on modern housewares and furnishings, featuring a great collection of Angela Adams rugs. 7920 Beverly Boulevard, 323-937-3222
- 8 SONRISA See write-up, page 201.
